

I am outraged by Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to air a one-sided documentary in the remaining days of the campaign. It is unfair, unbalanced and flies in the face of the fairness doctrine.

Because Sinclair uses public airwaves, and is bound by law to serve the public, this decision is especially deplorable.

I encourage the FCC to investigate this decision. Furthermore, these actions demonstrate why media ownership rules must be strengthened. Because of changes in media ownership, media no longer is a strong "fifth estate." Our founding fathers depended on this part of democracy to produce vibrant public debate and keep our nation strong.

For our future, more must be done to encourage fairness and debate.

Thank you.
